Hazel A. Fischer, 86, of Northfield died early Tuesday at the Faribault Manor Nursing Home. Funeral services are set for today (Thursday, June 15, 1989), 1:30 p.m., at Trinity Lutheran Church with the Rev. Steven Delzer officiating. Visitation was to be held on Wednesday, 4-9 p.m., at the Bierman Funeral Home in Northfield. A complete obituary will appear in The News Next week.

OBITUARY

Hazel Schoen Fischer was born on January 6, 1903, in rural Goodhue county. She was the daughter of Emil and Rose Drentlaw Schoen. Her education was in the rural Dennison schools. On January 16, 1923, she was married to George J. Fischer in the Methodist Church in Northfield. Hard work was a trademark of Hazel's. She worked as an egg candler for many years for the Wayne Hatchery in Northfield. Flowers and gardening were also of great enjoyment to Hazel. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. The younger members of the family had a special place in her heart. Hazel was preceded in death by her husband, George, in January of 1976. She is survived by daughters, Marcella Ista and Phyllis Kotz, both of Northfield, and son Duwayne Fischer of Faribault. She will fondly be remembered by 12 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren. One sister, Margaret Holt, of Winona, also survives. Hazel was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church.
