BIOGRAPHY

BOOK - RICE COUNTY FAMILIES. PUB. 1981   Henry P. Meehl Family. Henry P. Meehl, son of William and Caroline Voss Meehl, was born April 22, 1892, in Forest Township, Rice County. As a young man he worked in the wheat fields of Canada, harvesting with his steam engine. He returned and farmed in Forest Township for 25 years. In 1920 he married Sadie T. Johnson of Millersburg. They had 2 children, Lloyd who works at Northwest Airlines and lives in St. Paul, and Irene who is married to "Gene" Milo E. Searle and lives in Faribault. For many years, in addition to farming, he graded roads in Rice County with a horse-drawn grader and also helped build many roads in the area. He was a member of the town board and school board. In 1948 they moved to Faribault and he was an engineer at the Minnesota School for the Blind and St. Mary's Hall until he retired. They also managed a Laundromat for 16 years. Sadie was also employed for a number of years at the Faribault Woolen Mills. Henry's greatest pastime in his later years, which he dearly loved, was fishing. He could always be seen in the early morning hours fishing by the Woolen Mills or King Mill. Later in the day he would head for the lakes where he had a boat. He was always a jovial, happy man, who loved life, family and especially children, and was loved by all who knew him. He was always giving of himself and expected nothing in return. He was active until his death, which came suddenly April 25, 1977, at the age of 85. His wife, Sadie, still lives in Faribault.
